

ELLEN CROSBY is the author of the Virginia wine country mysteries, including THE CHAMPAGNE CONSPIRACY (Minotaur Books, November, 2016), her latest book. She has also written two mysteries—MULTIPLE EXPOSURE and GHOST IMAGE—featuring international photojournalist Sophie Medina and MOSCOW NIGHTS, a standalone recently republished in the US. Before writing fiction, she also worked as a freelance reporter for The Washington Post, Moscow correspondent for ABC News Radio in the late 1980s, and as an economist at the U.S. Senate. After living overseas for many years—England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, and the former Soviet Union—Crosby, who has an undergraduate degree in political science from Catholic University and a masters in international affairs from The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies, now lives in the D.C. suburbs of northern Virginia.
